

CELEBRATING 10 YEARS

of helping Oahu's child abuse victims heal.

Friends of the Children's Justice Center of Oahu Board of Directors and Staff, 2020

Response to COVID-19

The COVID-19 pandemic has forced our world to place many things on "pause." Tragically, child abuse does not take a break. The Children's Justice Center remains available to our law enforcement and social services partners so children are still able tell their story in a safe, child-friendly environment. And our non-profit Friends of the CJC of O'ahu is still here to help child victims.

Help from Friends

Making the adjustment to schooling at home may be hard for some children, but for those lacking the necessary technology, the shift can be impossible. In response, Friends has stepped up to provide new laptops to children in need through our Ho'ola Na Mana'o (HNM) Program. As expected, there is a large need and we are receiving multiple requests for laptops every week, and the number is growing. Friends is also providing struggling families with basic needs such as grocery gift cards, toiletries, cleaning supplies and baby needs.
